The following is a Summary of the ASHRAE Epidemic Task Force Bulletin "Re-opening of Schools- After Shutdown" (Attachment A).
Kyle Hasenkox in our Victoria office is a member of the ASHRAE Epidemic Task force that helped write these new guidelines and we are sharing this with School Districts across B.C. for their information and consideration in creating a safe environment.
Currently there is no evidence that suggests the virus is spread through the ventilation system but it is believed that these additional measures will help with isolation during building occupancy.

Kyle Hasenkox in our Victoria office is a member of the ASHRAE Epidemic Task force that helped write these new guidelines and we are sharing this with School Districts across B.C. for their information and consideration in creating a safe environment. Currently, there is evidence that suggests the virus is spread through the ventilation system but it is believed that these additional measures will help with isolation during building occupancy. The evidence to date is sufficient that the guidance from US CDC, WHO, Public Health Canada recommend proper ventilation should be in place and vented to operate properly. Poorly ventilated spaces present a risk. For additional and more detailed resources:

A screenshot of a Twitter archive page for the account @VIULibrary. The page features a large profile picture of a person with glasses and curly hair, overlaid with various social media icons like a blue speech bubble, a yellow emoji, a blue bookmark, and a green circle. At the top, it says "Hi @VIULibrary," followed by a message about the archive including links to a folder and a README file. Below this is a "Quick stats" section showing 5,762 tweets and 922 likes. At the bottom, there are sections for personalization, safety, and account settings.
